HI GUYS

WELCOME TO YET ANOTHER NEW TOPIC .

TO DAY I AM GOING TO EXPLAIN YOU THE SUCCESS IN THE LOVE MARRIAGE AS PER VEDIC ASTROLOGY. NOW A DAYS THE LOVE AFFAIR IS A VERY COMMON ISSUE, BUT THE QUESTIONS ARISES ON THIS TOPIC ARE VERY ENORMOUS. HENCE MY TODAY'S TOPIC IS

SUCCESS IN LOVE MARRIAGE AS PER VEDIC ASTROLOGY.

SUCCESS IN LOVE MARRIAGE

There are number of combinations in the Birth Chart / janana kundali which reveals whether the person will have a love marriage.

- Position of Venus - Karaka of Love

Venus plays a very important role in deciding whether the marriage would be a love marriage or an arranged one. Sometimes, it indicates physical attraction which usually does not end up in marriage. Venus is the ruler of pleasures, joys, emotional life and desires.

Venus the Karaka of love, when the Venus aspects Lagna / Ascendant, 5th house, 7th house or 11th house depicts the loving nature of an individual. But, conversion of love into a marriage is a different thing.

Hence if the Venus is in powerful position and well-placed, the behavior of the native will be under-control and the love will be a true one. When the Venus happen to be the 5th house lord and is placed in 7th house, your love can definitely have a happy ending with a love marriage.

The probability of a love marriage is also present in the condition when Venus is placed in the ascendant or in the Moon sign or is present in the 5th house from the Moon.

Role of 5th, 7th and 9th house in a love marriage

5th house is the house of love and in contemporary social conditions, it signifies attraction and romance. 5th house if occupied by the lord of 7th house, indicates a love marriage. The partners may come from an affluent family. Also, the life partner will be mature and it will be an advantage for the native.

7th house is associated with marriage and happiness related to marriage. The lord of 7th house should not occupy Dustha sthanas, since this placement would give more unfavorable results. If the lord of 7th house is placed in the 6th house, it acts as Maraka and you can expect any kind of trouble. If the 7th lord is placed in the 8th house, it denotes physical separation. When 7th lord is placed in the 12th house, the partners would be rejected.

Sometimes, hardly any combinations in the birth chart are present which indicate a love marriage. In such a case, we should not forget to check the Navamsha Chart. In the Navamasha Chart, if the 7th lord and the 9th lord or 5th lord and 7th lord are in conjunction, the chances of a love marriage are 100%.

Role of Ascendant in Love Marriage

If Venus is placed in the ascendant along with ascendant lord then the chances of love marriage is confirmed. The native will get into love at an early age and will be ultimately successful in converting his love into a marriage.

In general, the Moon sign can also indicate whether a person will be successful in having a love marriage or not. The chances of a love marriage are present when Moon is present in Taurus, Scorpio, Capricorn and Pisces sign. On the other hand, if a person is in love with a native of Aries and Virgo sign, he or she will not be able to convert his/her love into marriage.

Factors which obstruct love marriage

If Venus is debilitated in ascendant, it is likely to cause tension, dissatisfaction in marital happiness, diseases and temporary separation. If such Venus is exalted in a Navamsha Chart; then there are great chances that such malefic influences will not take place. If 7th lord is weak when Venus is debilitated; there are great chances that the native will not enjoy a happy in the marital life. Many problems like separation, divorce, delay or denial in marriage, severe health problems and problems related to progeny may arise.

Moon is the emotional Karaka of mind and is exalted in Taurus which is the sign of Venus. Hence, emotions are stable when Moon is well-placed. When the moon is afflicted, all kind of negative behavior will be seen in the native. Therefore, Moon should not be afflicted for a pure love and for conversion of that love into marriage.

Mars is the Karaka of courage and ability to express your love while Venus is the planet that initiates the attraction towards the opposite sex. It has been observed that both these planets in conjunction indicate a failure in love marriage. In this case, the people are often betrayed by their partners.
